

Dr Achim Degner

Executive Board Röchling Group
CFO

Dr Achim Degner graduated in Business Administration from Ruhr University Bochum and the University of Münster and earned a doctorate (Dr rer. pol.) from the University of Münster in 1992.

He began his career at Merck Finck in Düsseldorf before joining Ruhrgas AG in 1992. After holding controlling and finance leadership positions within the Ruhrgas Group, he was appointed Managing Director and Chief Financial Officer of LOI Thermprocess GmbH in 1997.

In 2004, Dr Achim Degner joined Chiron-Group as Managing Director and CFO and, from 2012 onwards, also served as Managing Director and CFO of the holding company Hoberg & Driesch. Between 2018 and 2025, he was a member of the Management Board of Lenze SE as Chief Financial Officer and Labour Director, with responsibility for finance as well as human resources, procurement and logistics, IT, and organisational processes.

At the beginning of 2026, Dr Achim Degner briefly assumed the position of Chief Financial Officer of Gebr. Eickhoff GmbH in Bochum.

Effective 1 July 2026, he was appointed Chief Financial Officer of the Röchling Group and a member of the Röchling Group's Executive Board.